The DoorWay Drug and Alcohol Recovery Program employs a multi-level treatment approach to drug and alcohol recovery. It's an intensive, 7 to 13-month, Christ-centered program designed to help men overcome drug and alcohol addictions. When men enter the program, they are involved in a comprehensive curriculum of evidence-based programming, self-discovery, life skills, spiritual renewal, Bible study, and employment. They also participate actively in mentoring, counseling, and 12-step work.

The DoorWay Substance Abuse Program is a 7-month intensive and supportive residential treatment program with the optional transitional living aftercare treatment for up to 6 additional months. The program is designed to help clients identify and overcome addictive behaviors. Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselors (LCDCs) create treatment plans for the clients during their stay at the Mission. Clients receive substance abuse education, life skills training, and individual counseling and participate in 12-step programs.

EDUCATION- Open Door Mission requires all men in DoorWay Program to complete a minimum of 5-10 hours of academic education each week during their stay in computer based instruction to become computer literate, ready for additional academic and technical education or employment.

Clients are given an educational assessment early in their stay to identify their personal educational grade equivalency level. A customized academic curriculum, with emphasis on their weaknesses, is created for their improvement based on their personal performance. The computerized program is self-paced and available to

In order to begin to function in our computer based society, computer literacy is required, including typing and functional use of the Microsoft Office software (Office, Word, and Excel), most commonly used in job placement opportunities. Mission volunteers provide additional support as tutors for clients who need one-on-one drill and instruction to achieve academic progress.

The Mission's Education and Technology Center is an officially recommended provider of the GED programming by the University of Houston and Houston Community College. The GED program is also available free of charge to community students. Additionally, we are members of the Houston Center for Literacy, which provides training in the latest methods in adult education.
